On 1-27-2016 at approximately 4:50 a.m. the Carlton County Sheriff's Office responded to the report of an intruder being in the victim's home. The victims could hear someone moving inside their residence and the sounds of what they described as "dishes being broken". The homeowner also indicated that he had a gun and was in the bedroom with his girlfriend. They had locked themselves inside their bedroom and told the dispatcher that nobody should be in their residence as they are the only two that live there.

Deputies from the Carlton County Sheriff's Office arrived as well as members of the Fond du Lac Police Department and Cloquet Police Department. As they were about to enter the residence they found a door to the breezeway that was forced open. Upon entering and announcing their presence law enforcement personnel could hear a male's voice and yelled, "I give up; I'm on the ground in here". Law enforcement encountered a 28 year old male, from Cloquet, MN and took him into custody.

The male was placed under arrest and transported to the Carlton County Jail. The suspect is awaiting formal charges of burglary, criminal damage to property, disorderly conduct and theft.

The Carlton County Sheriff's Office was assisted by the Fond du Lac Police Department and Cloquet Police Department.
